ORDER #13041-S

Thank you for your purchase!

Hi Jeff, we're getting your order ready to be shipped. We will notify you when it has been sent.

Unfortunately, due to the ongoing Covid19 situation, we are experiencing shipping delays beyond our control. While we are packing orders daily, our carriers are operating beyond their current capacity and are unable to keep up. We are seeing delays in the transit process that may lengthen some delivery timelines. We appreciate your patience and assure you that everything that can be done is to ensure that you receive your order as quickly as possible.
